Day 5: Departure

The Antinori Family has been making wine since Giovanni di Piero Antinori became part of the Florence vintner's guild, the Arte Fiorentina dei Vinattieri, in 1385. The core of the Antinori philosophy is to maximize the undiscovered potential of specific wine regions, soils and microclimates while staying true to the tradition, culture, and taste that give Antinori wines their individuality. Throughout its long history, which now spans 26 generations, the family has always personally managed the business from its offices in Florence, making innovative, sometimes daring choices—but always with unwavering respect for tradition and the land. Today, Marchese Piero Antinori is Honorary Chairman of the company, which is now being run by his daughters – the 26th Generation – Albiera, Allegra and Alessia.

Twenty-six generations of the Antinori Family have produced remarkable wines. The family's winegrowing philosophy of centuries' old Tuscan and Umbrian tradition along with an innovative spirit has made Antinori the premier wine-producing family of Italy. That innovative spirit led Marchese Piero Antinori to California's Napa Valley. As an inquisitive observer of Napa Valley's own Wild West spirit, Piero Antinori developed a great appreciation for Napa Valley, a region already famous for its quality red wines. The California adventure all began in 1966 when Piero, as a young man and at the encouragement of his father, made his first visit to Napa Valley and discovered the spirit of the new frontier. Twenty years later the Antinori Family purchased land to develop that 1,170-acre Napa Valley wine estate. Piero Antinori was attracted to this spectacular property located on a high plain in the eastern mountains of the celebrated Napa Valley because of its resemblance to Tuscany. The property is in the Atlas Peak District of Napa Valley which is above and east of the Stags Leap District.

You can use your AAdvantage® miles to fly to exciting destinations on American Airlines, American Eagle®, AmericanConnection®, or one of the AAdvantage® participant airlines. The itinerary you choose determines the number of miles you need to use. FROM THE DEPTHS OF THE SEA TO THE HILLS OF OAKVILLE

2018 MAYA

3.0L

Dalla Valle Vineyards is recognized as one of Napa Valley's preeminent family-run wineries and was founded in 1986 by Naoko and her late husband Gustav Dalla Valle (who invented and developed scuba gear for deep sea diving while worked closely with his friend French naval officer and oceanographer Jacques Cousteau). Naoko and Gustav's search for prime Napa Valley vineyard land took them to the famed eastern hillsides of Oakville, where Dalla Valle Vineyards has earned acclaim as one of world's most celebrated wine estates, yielding wines of extraordinary character and complexity, vintage after vintage. Today, Dalla Valle is guided by the mother-and-daughter team of Naoko and Winemaker Maya Dalla Valle, who work alongside an illustrious crew that includes Consulting Winemaker Andy Erickson, Vineyard Manager Edgar Alfaro, as well as internationally recognized Consulting Enologist Michel Rolland. While known for its stellar Cabernets and Cabernet blends, the Maya bottling has, since its introduction with the 1988 vintage, been at the top of its portfolio and produced in miniscule quantities. The 1992 vintage, released in 1995, was only the second California wine at that time to earn 100-points from Robert Parker and the accolades have been flowing ever since. In this very rare 3.0L format, you have the opportunity of adding to your cellar one of California's (and the world's) most prestigious wines from the excellent 2018 Napa Valley vintage.

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI IN MAGNUM

2015 DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI GRAND ÉCHÉZEAUX

2015 DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI ÉCHÉZEAUX

1 MAGNUM EACH

Whenever a vinous discussion turns to Burgundy, Domaine de la Romanée-Conti (often abbreviated to DRC) is sure to come up. Despite its limited availability and high price, DRC is widely acknowledged as among the most highly valued and sought after wines of Burgundy and in the world. Through the centuries DRC has achieved a level of greatness beyond the reach of even the world's most revered wines and producers. Originally founded in 1232 when the Abbey of Saint Vivant in Vosne acquired 1.8 hectares (4.5 acres) of vineyard, the property has expanded and changed hands multiple times through the centuries without losing any of its luster regardless of the then current ownership. The vineyard was sold again for the final time in 1869 to Jacques-Marie Duvault-Bloch, descendant of the de Villaine family (including Aubert de Villaine), one of two families who remain as proprietors.

Under the Duvault-Blocher ownership, reconstruction of the domaine as we know it today, was begun and acquisitions of vineyard holdings in Échézeaux, Grands Échézeaux and Richebourg were completed. Jasper Morris wrote in his “Inside Burgundy” Review of Burgundy’s 2015 vintage, “2015 has earned a great reputation for its Reds. They possess the concentration of the [legendary] 2005s and are allied to the sensuality of the 2010s.” Two wines in magnum format from the Grand Cru vineyards purchased by Duvault-Blocher in 1869 and the highly acclaimed 2015 vintage compose this magnificent lot for you tonight.

YOUR CHANCE TO WEAR THE GLASS SLIPPER

2021 GLASS SLIPPER CABERNET SAUVIGNON INAUGURAL RELEASE
10 MAGNUMS SOLD TO THE FIRST 10 BIDDERS

The 2021 Glass Slipper Vineyard estate grown Cabernet Sauvignon came about because Suzie Frank didn’t want to say goodbye to all the delicious grapes she tasted as she walked through the vineyard just prior to harvest. In 2000, Suzie and Paul Frank chose Winemasters to introduce their inaugural 1997 Gemstone Cabernet Sauvignon that went on to create a collector’s frenzy in the years that followed. This year Suzie has again chosen to debut her 2021 Glass Slipper Cabernet Sauvignon at Winemasters (and last night at our “Coombsville Comes to You” sponsor event). We are so honored!

In the words of Kevin Vogt, Master Sommelier, Wine Curator/Co-proprietor of Wine Country Connections and noted judge of many national wine competitions: “The 2021 Glass Slipper Vineyard Coombsville Cabernet Sauvignon presents a captivating bouquet that projects pure luxury. Then on to an explosive palate with a fresh structure through a very long finish where notes of kirsch liqueur linger alongside velvety tannins promising years of graceful aging potential. Despite its power, the wine remains remarkably compact and linear, showcasing exceptional focus. This is a truly exceptional Cabernet Sauvignon, a testament to the meticulous craftsmanship and exceptional terroir of Glass Slipper Vineyard.”

Glass Slipper is an idyllic 5-acre vineyard in the Coombsville AVA of Napa Valley, and prior to 2021 all Glass Slipper Vineyard grapes were sold. Suzie and Paul chose their buyers carefully and all the grapes were used in highly rated and sought after wines with some carrying a vineyard designation. Only 100 cases of the 2021 were produced with some in magnums so this is your chance to be part of the next great adventure with Suzie and her Glass Slipper wines. Paul has generously agreed to make Glass Slipper remain as Suzie’s brand, but we’re all sure he is an able supporter at the ready to offer some cogent advice when needed.

YOUR COOMBSVILLE ADVENTURE AWAITS

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXPERIENCE FOR SIX IN NAPA VALLEY'S NEWEST APPELLATION

4-Day, 3-Night stay for SIX

Accommodations: multi award-winning Archer Napa in 3 independent Deluxe King Guestrooms with daily breakfast for SIX

Valid Monday-Thursday to: 5/18/25; subject to availability and at a mutually convenient time. Must book well in advance. Excludes holidays.

Bonus: Dinners for SIX at: Glass Slipper Vineyard, Ackerman Family Vineyards, Celadon. Lunches for SIX at Farella and Sciandri Family Vineyards. Private vineyard and tasting experiences at LOCALISM Wines, Duhig Wine, Arrow&Branch, Silverado Vineyards

For years Coombsville was a growers' paradise, supplying up-valley wineries with grapes of stellar character that lent a backbone of power and elegance to their wines. Since the AVA was commissioned in 2011, there has been an accelerated growth of small family-owned wineries. The area's diverse portfolio is gaining world-wide recognition for its wines displaying finely tuned structure, balance, deep hues and finesse with an underlying sense of minerality unique to the area. The Coombsville AVA is Napa Valley's sixteenth, newest and perhaps most unique appellation. The entire area is a volcanic caldera formed by a massive eruption that later also resulted in the collapse of the crater's western wall. The resulting crescent shaped caldera created a complex mix of exposures, altitudes and grades combined with somewhat consistent soil types throughout the AVA. Volcanic rock atop of volcanic ash and pockets of clay and fresh-water diatomaceous earth (that differs from the salt-water diatomaceous earth found elsewhere in the Valley). Next to Carneros, Coombsville is the coolest Napa Valley AVA with the morning fog and cooling afternoon breezes from San Pablo Bay moderating temperatures throughout the growing season leading to longer hang times, even ripening patterns and enhanced flavor/aromatic development.

Get to know Coombsville with this in-depth adventure for SIX.

- Opening grill dinner at the home of Suzie and Paul Frank at their Glass Slipper Vineyard.
- Enjoy a festive dinner with Ackerman wines at the Ackerman Estate.
- Closing dinner at Celadon with Coombsville Vintners and Growers Board President Jim Urda and his wife Carrie for a multi-course dining delight accompanied by a wide range of wines from Coombsville vintners. Celadon is an award-winning restaurant located in the Historic Napa Mill alongside the Napa River. The seasonally influenced menu features flavors from the Mediterranean, Asia, and the Americas.
- Enjoy an al fresco lunch with the Sciandris. Rebecca Sciandri Griffin invites your party to join her at the family's beautiful Coombsville estate for a very special food and wine experience. Winning bidders will choose 4 wines from a list of Sciandri Library Wines (list will be provided when date is booked) to create their own Vintage Perspective Tasting. Their favorite wine following the tasting will be the lunch wine. The family's winemaking roots can be traced back to the small town of La Quercia, located in the Northern Tuscany region of Italy. As a family, they strive to operate their winery with some of those same Old-World values as many of the earlier generations. All fruit is farmed and sourced from their estate vineyard in the Coombsville AVA.

- A rustic and casual lunch awaits you at Farella. Tom Farella graduated from UC Davis in 1983 and joined his father Frank Farella as winemaker for his Farella-Park Estate, assuming operations and production in 1991. Frank was among the first to plant Cabernet Sauvignon in Coombsville when the conventional wisdom dictated that it was too cool for the variety. The Farella's are Coombsville pioneers and continue to blaze the trail for all that have followed in the area.

- LOCALISM Wines offers a private tasting for SIX with Proprietors Nicole and Ryan Knoth at their Coombsville vineyard with an elaborate cheese and charcuterie plate included. LOCALISM is much larger than wine – it encompasses art, music, food, the land, family, and community. A common theme found in LOCALISM Wines is that they are distinct, respectful of the vintage and the nature of the grapes. Authenticity is the core of everything they do.

- Arrow&Branch wines invites you to experience a private vineyard tour and wine tasting of current releases. Proprietors Steve and Seanne Contursi share a great love for the wines of Bordeaux, particularly those produced with a large quantity of Cabernet Franc, such as Château Cheval Blanc. They began their romance while traveling through Bordeaux in the mid 1980's and have since found their dreams came true in Napa Valley. They sought out their Coombsville Estate vineyard property with an eye to producing top-quality Bordeaux-style blend wines from Napa Valley. Your enjoyment will confirm their success.

- Taste the wines of Silverado Vineyards - Alison Rodriguez is a relatively new entry on the Coombsville scene as she has recently been appointed by Foley Family Wines to head the winemaking for their Silverado Vineyards that owns and operates a 170-acre estate (125 planted) atop Mount George.

- Enjoy a morning stroll with Harvest Duhig through the vineyards of Duhig Wine. Harvest Duhig calls herself an “Old Coombsville soul with a new school view.” Since childhood, her appreciation of nature was influenced by her grandmother's commitment to gardening. She worked her first harvest in 1997 and later graduated UC Davis with a dual degree in Viticulture and Enology. As she said, “With the name Harvest I knew winemaking was my calling.”

THE EAGLE IS SCREAMING FOR YOU

Perhaps Dick Grace, of Grace Family Vineyards, unknowingly kicked-off the Napa Valley “cult” movement in the late 1970s by selling very limited amounts of his stellar Cabernet through an exclusive mailing list (no email in those days) that quickly resulted in a multi-year wait list just to receive the annual offering. And no doubt Jean Phillips of Screaming Eagle raised the cult demand to a fever pitch with her first Screaming Eagle release of 1992 Cabernet Sauvignon that was universally embraced by the critics and feverishly demanded by consumers not wanting to be left out in joining the action. For years, Jean devoted her passion and talent to the growing, production and marketing of her coveted brand that continue today to lead the “Cult-Pack.” Adding greatly to the value of this lot, both vintages (1994 and 2001) were under Jean’s complete control prior to her sale of the vineyard and brand in 2006.

JEAN PHILLIPS

This treasured bottle comes directly from the personal cellar of Screaming Eagle Founder Jean Phillips and carries a priceless pedigree. This was only Jean’s third release, but already while availability was extremely limited, the name was revered among collectors, press and trade. The vintage was the first of a fabulous trifecta of 1994, 1995 and 1996 that carried a decade of winners. 1994 presented a broad palate of bright fruit, depth and concentration on release that has continued to develop over the last three decades. While the search was on for a single bottle of this wine upon release and ever since, magnums were essentially unheard of until this offering to you. Priceless is an often over used descriptor but fits perfectly when speaking of this rare lot directly from the soul of Screaming Eagle.

2001 SCREAMING EAGLE CABERNET SAUVIGNON

1 BOTTLE

All great bottles of wine don’t have to come in magnum, and this is a great example of how you can join the “Eagle” parade with a singular bottle from a heralded vintage produced under the watchful eyes of Proprietor Jean Phillips. Vintage 2001 in Napa Valley kicked off the decade of the aughts with Cabernets of stellar structure, complexity and balance. The 2001 Screaming Eagle is a radiant example of what vineyard and winemaking expertise can accomplish in an outstanding vintage. Difficult climatic conditions in 2000 led Screaming Eagle to hold off a release for that vintage and led the way to “double-down” for 2001 in terms of quality (and to meet the pent-up demand of their committed followers). Although the vintage produced amazing wines, production suffered from a relatively low harvest and supply. Here is another chance to answer the Eagle’s scream by owning this lot!

RIDGE MONTEBELLO

2016 RIDGE MONTE BELLO

2018 RIDGE MONTE BELLO

1 3.0L EACH

Until his retirement in 2016, Paul Draper made the wines and oversaw the vineyards for Ridge (located in the Santa Cruz Mountains) for almost 50 years. Paul is universally recognized as one of the premier winemakers in the world and has received many honors for his expertise, including being named Decanter magazine's "Man of the Year." His philosophy has always been that the vineyard creates the wine, and every year he produced many single vineyard wines from numerous varietals and blends. Even after retirement, Paul's legacy continues. The kingpin of the vineyards – Monte Bello – surrounds the winery. Ridge has been making wine from Montebello since 1962, and the character of the wines has always been unique in beautifully expressing its terroir. Both 2016 and 2018 were considered outstanding years in the Santa Cruz Mountains and these wines are no exceptions. Whether a seasoned Monte Bello collector or new to the Ridge experience, both 3.0Ls of Monte Bello are wines for your cellar and on your table to celebrate that special occasion with friends and family.

PETER MICHAEL – DOUBLE THE PLEASURE

Since 1982, the Michael family and a history of acclaimed winemakers and viticulturists have realized their vision to produce limited production, estate wines of exceptional quality, reflective of the unique terroir of Peter Michael Winery. The first red Bordeaux grapes were planted a year later, and the legend of the Peter Michael Winery began. The winery is focused on producing world class single vineyard wines in the Old-World style that concentrate on depth, balance, elegance and structure. From the beginning, Sir Peter's goals were three-fold: "One, the vineyard terroir would be the single most important feature. Two, the wines would be elegant rather than overstated. Three, there would be a hundred-year commitment to the development of a great estate." Although these goals are evident in all Peter Michael wines, they reach even higher peaks in Les Pavots. This flagship Bordeaux style blend changes slightly in the Old-World fashion with each vintage to express its own personality.

PETER MICHAEL LES PAVOTS

2009 PETER MICHAEL LES PAVOTS ETCHED AND SIGNED

3.0L

Peter Michael's legendary history with Les Pavots is well known throughout the wine community and knowledgeable collectors eagerly await each coming vintage to purchase on release. 2009 was a stunning year in both Napa and Sonoma that was met with some late rainfall. Those who chose to rush the pick dates to avoid the coming rains did not fare nearly as well as those (such as Peter Michael) who chose to hold off and were greeted by warm sunny days with the extended hang-time proving hugely beneficial in producing award winning wines. And above them all was this rendition of Peter Michael Les Pavot. In their release review of the wine, Wine Spectator spoke glowing on their tasting experience and pegged the wine to peak at 2030. While still a few years away from that, this offering will continue to grow and delight your table well into the next decade and beyond, especially in this collector's beautifully etched and signed double magnum.

A COLOSSAL BOTTLE OF JOY FROM BARBIERI

2018 BARBIERI ROMANVS SYRAH/VIIGNIER BLEND

18.0L SIGNED AND ENGRAVED

Master Sommelier (MS) Paolo Barbieri left his home in Rome at a young age and ventured to England where he followed his dream to pursue a career in the restaurant industry. Years later he migrated to the States after spending time in wine service aboard a cruise ship with a renewed focus to become a sommelier. He spent over thirty years managing numerous world class wine lists. With this in-depth exposure to the finest wines, Paolo “took the plunge” and began making small experimental lots of wine from Santa Barbara County in his Las Vegas garage by using his experience and expertise to master his own winemaking process. In 2005, he founded the Barbieri Wine Company based on Rhone varieties.

Erin Kempe began a culinary career in her home state of Texas and later found herself working with several culinary masters in Las Vegas where she and Paolo met in 2007. Suddenly, winemaking became her dream and passion. She founded her own brand – Kempe – focused on Bordeaux varieties and blends. In 2014, Paolo and Erin decided to “roll the dice” and go all in to pursue wine making full-time. They left Las Vegas to open their tasting room in Los Olivos. In 2018 Massimo Barbieri joined his parents as Paolo’s assistant winemaker and worked closely with his dad to produce the Romanvs blend for this offering. Massimo also lent his now experienced hand in the extraordinary effort in packaging and bottling the 18.0L format up for bid tonight. Paolo originated the idea for this 18.0L bottling last summer when he decided he wanted to do something special and unique for our 35th Annual Winemasters, and we are very appreciative of the family’s effort on our behalf.

The 2018 Barbieri Romanvs is from the highly revered Colson Canyon Vineyard in the rugged hills of Santa Maria Valley. A tribute to the Côte-Rôte style that, according to a long-held tradition, marries the depth of Syrah with Viognier’s aromatic flair through co-fermentation of the two disparate varieties. This blend offers scents of deep dark chocolate with meaty boysenberry aroma in the background. An immediate dive into flavors of salty charcuterie, ripe plum, espresso, and anise help to enhance its complexity. The finish is long and smooth with finely woven tannins and well-integrated white pepper, creating a balance of intensity and elegance that invites another sip.

THE FINEST WINERY APPELLATION MAP EVER CREATED!

Back in 2011, Tom Jarman became a concierge at the Silverado Resort and Spa in the Napa Valley. Tom was asked for a map of the Napa Valley and was unable to find a comprehensive, detailed and accurate one. Utilizing his 15 years of logo design and art program experience, he decided to create his own Napa Valley map and he has become a cartographer for the Napa Valley and other wine regions.

As Tom's cartography interest grew, he purchased high quality, state-of-the-art printers to produce his maps. Within six months, he graduated to a large-format printer to print on canvas. Additionally, since Tom has always loved woodworking, he now produces all his own frames for his maps.

Demand for his detailed MAPPELLATION winery and vineyard maps of the Napa Valley has grown especially for hotel lobbies, custom winery maps and private residences across the country. Each print is unique, on canvas, stretched and framed in hand-crafted walnut frames that are created by Tom.

His obsessive/compulsive goal is to have the most detailed, comprehensive winery map ever created! With over 475 "Brick & Mortar" wineries in the Napa Valley, the map also has estates, custom crush facilities and homes of vintners listed with over 830 wineries recognized. Talk about a conversation work of art!

Jeb Dunnuck says about the 2019 Cabernet Sauvignon Reserve, “This exuberant, full-bodied, uber-sexy Cabernet has the vintage’s ripe, layered style yet still brings plenty of tannins, beautiful mid-palate depth, perfect balance and that rare sense of richness paired with elegance.” - Jeb Dunnuck. And Antonio Galloni, Vinous Media states, “...the Reserve is an unforgettable wine.” -

The 2021 Cabernet Sauvignon Select Series opens with enticing aromas of black cherry and currants, followed by subtle notes of sweet, toasted oak, and delicate rose petals. The palate boasts a luxurious and graceful character with beautifully refined tannins. Ripe red fruit harmonizes with hints of cedar and tobacco. Staying true to its style, this wine exhibits delightful depth and texture, embraced by polished tannins and vibrant acidity, offering both freshness and structure.
